

Gaur Saundaryam organises religious procession

Aug 27, 2020

A religious procession was taken out inside Gaur Saundaryam Society, Greater Noida West, on the concluding day of the establishment of Hare Rama Hare Krishna Temple inside the premises. Residents followed social distancing and safety norms while being completely immersed in the devotion of Radhe Krishna. While the majority of residents watched the procession from the balcony of their homes, a selected few also participated in the procession.
