Jewar MLA inaugurates paragliding centre

Team Absolute | Noida

Sports enthusiasts might not have to go out to experience paragliding as Tejas, an adventure sports organising company, on Monday opened up a centre at Gaur Yamuna City in Greater Noida.

While inaugurating the centre, Dharendra Singh, MLA of Jewar an assembly constituency in GB Nagar, said that this is going to be platform for youths who aspires to begin a career in a paragliding. Making such a facility available for youth will motivate many to become adventurers and set a record in the coming time. Besides this, adventure enthusiasts might not to travel a long distance for experiencing a fly in the sky as the facility is now available in and around their own city.

Set up at the outskirts of national capital region of Delhi, this is one of first its kind facilities that has come up in western region of Uttar Pradesh. The centre will cater to the need of adventurers who go out especially for paragliding.

The centre will be open for all days of week between 8 am to 10 am during which adventures may come to joy of flying in the open sky.

They could fly over the Gaur Yamuna City that sprawls over land areas of 300 acres.
